

Episode-6

Jingle bells Song

Here is another tune for you. This one is also based on C major scale. Notice that the first note here is not the root note (C) but the 3rd (E) of the scale which is also present in the first chord of this song C major chord. Mostly a tune starts on the 1st, 3rd, or 5th of the first chord and this tune ends on the root note chord.

Let's look at below diagram:

Follow the exact fingers given in the video. Build consistency and sing along with it for better results. Match the words and tune with every note as shown in the video. This tune is also in the key of C major. In simple words we say that this tune is in C major scale.

chord progression :

C /// /// /// ///
F /// G /// C /// C ///
(Digram:Chord Progression for song)

Once you feel comfortable with the tune and chord progression, Try playing with the video. This will give you more confidence as a player and remove any FUD's you might face later.

Playing songs in both tune form and chord form is essential in this journey of musical exploration. So, always be patient and go slow when learning songs. Take your time and fix a practice schedule to increase mileage and get faster results.